

Despite a promising start to the campaign, where victories were picked up over St Vincents and Dunboyne, along with a draw against Dunsany, it has been a disappointing second half to the campaign and three successive defeats against Clan na Gael, St Marys and St Ultans means that the first team are out of contention for the quarter finals with one game remaining.

.....

This game will take place against Boardsmill on the weekend of the 2nd and 3rd of September.