

Annual golf classic next Tuesday June 26th

Wednesday, 23 May 2007 09:36

Our annual golf classic is taking place next Tuesday 26th June 2007 at Knockanally Golf Club, Co Kildare.

You can support the club by entering a team of 4 for €400 (dinner included) or by sponsoring a tee box for €100.

This is our main fundraiser for the year and its' success is key to ensuring the continued successful running of the club at all levels. Previous golf classics have proved to be a great day out and we look forward to everyone's continued support.

Should you be interested in participating or supporting our club, please contact any club committee member or alternatively call our club secretary Colette Smith on 087 4154356.
