

The Junior A championship final between Moynalvey and Clann na nGael has been fixed for Sunday, October 7th at 3pm in Pairc Tailteann, Navan.

The match will be played alongside both senior championship semi finals with Dunshaughlin or O'Mahony's playing Dunboyne at 1:30pm and Simonstown playing Senchalstown at 4:30pm. The referee for the final will be Liam O'Brien.

All support is most definitely required as Moynalvey will have to overcome a very strong Clann na nGael outfit as the club attempts to capture the Junior Championship title 26 years on from their last victory in the competition.
