

Ronan McNally, who played underage football with many of the current team seeks your support with the 9km bridge run in Sydney, Australia on Sunday next, September 21st in aid of Epilepsy Action Australia.

As many will be aware, Eimear Flattery from Moynalvey (Ronan's cousin) died 2 years ago aged 30 years in Sydney. She suffered from epilepsy since she was 10 years old. Ronan is now doing the 9km bridge run in Sydney next Sunday in her honour and under the auspice of the Epilepsy Action Australia. All proceeds will go towards worldwide research into this condition.

You can support Ronan by logging onto www.everydayhero.com.au/ronan_mcnally . All donations will be greatly appreciated.

Ronan would like to wish all the panel the very best of luck in the upcoming Junior A final.
