

Family fun day in aid of children with Autism

Friday, 24 July 2009 16:14

Fun day for all the family on Sunday 2nd August in Kiltale Hurling & Camogie Club in aid of Jonix pre-school for children with Autism Enfield and Irish Autism Action.

Former Moynalvey player & manager Paul Regan is hosting a fundraising fun day in aid of Autism in Kiltale club house on Sunday 2nd August. Events kick off with a 10 km sponsored cycle @ 12pm followed by Tug-O-War @ 2pm. Lots of other activities for all ages throughout the day. Please come along & support this very worthy cause. For further details of sponsoring a cyclist or entering a Tug-O-War team contact Paul (086 3385011) or Ann Regan (086 8741094). Further details of the day's events can be viewed on the attached flyer.

Fun day for Jonix pre-school for children with Autism & Irish Autism Action