

Closing date for online entry into the Moynalvey GFC sports prediction competition for 2010 is next Friday Feb 12th. Entries can still be made online up until Friday, however all prediction sheets manually filled in must be returned to a committee member by Thursday 11th Feb. So there's still time to enter & get in on the fun.

Think you know your sport? Prove it by attempting to correctly predict as many outcomes as possible from a list of 25 well known sports events throughout 2010.

- Submit online at www.sportsprophet.ie (Preferred Method)

Join the Moynalvey GFC league. When submitting online, you will instantly receive an email confirming your entry. Once payment is given to your seller, your entry will be validated shortly afterwards.

- Submit manually by filling out this form.

When submitting manually, simply fill in the prediction sheet (link attached) and return to your seller along with payment. Club co-ordinators will then receive these prediction sheets .

The form may be printed off for family/friends/work colleagues through the following link: Question Form

. To be in with the chance of winning, please circle the answer you think has the most potential to be correct.

Each question has a range of potential answers alongside it. Note: All Sports Events listed are those which will be concluded during 2010. Therefore some events are already underway (e.g. Premier League, Magners League etc.) Benefits of being part of the Moynalvey GFC league include:

- Follow your progress online, and that of your friends by checking the Moynalvey GFC leader board at www.sportsprophet.ie
- Follow the progress and compare your score to some of Ireland's best known sports stars as they battle it out against each other in our Celebrity Leader Board.
- View your answer sheet online anytime you wish throughout the year.
- Scores updated regularly as each sporting event occurs.
- Receive regular emails informing you when scores have been updated. All entries must either be submitted online by February 12th, or manually returned to sellers by February 11th 2010 if you wish to take part. Please note that no application will be validated into the Moynalvey GFC league without receipt of the €20 fee to the seller.

It really is that simple! Good luck! Why not have an active interest in the major sporting fixtures throughout the year, while simultaneously supporting Moynalvey GFC. All of this for a total of just €20 (only 80c/per prediction). Interested applicants can apply in one of two ways:
