

The draw for the 2010 Meath Football & Hurling Championship Draw took place in Teach na Teamhrach on Monday 29th April 2010 saw Moynalvey placed in Group A of both the Finnegan Intermediate Football Championship & John Collins Junior 'C' Championship.

In a group of five, the first round sees Moynalvey pitted against East Meath outfit St. Colmcilles. The other opening round game in the group sees a repeat of last years semi-final with Kilmainhamwood taking on Nobber, while Carnaross will have a bye.

The draw for the Junior C Championship (sponsored by Moynalvey man John Collins) saw Moynalvey placed in Group A with Donaghmore/Ashbourne, Castletown, Oldcastle & Kilmainhamwood once again after meeting them in both the Intermediate & Junior C Championships last year also.

Meanwhile the Feis Cup saw Moynalvey drawn against Liam Harnans Skryne in the first round.

The INTERMEDIATE Football Championship Group A draw in full is:

Round 1

Kilmainhamwood V Nobber
Moynalvey V St. Colmcilles
Carnaross a bye

Round 2

Carnaross V St. Colmcilles
Moynalvey V Nobber
Kilmainhamwood a bye

Round 3

Carnaross V Kilmainhamwood
Nobber V St. Colmcilles
Moynalvey a bye

Round 4

Carnaross V Moynalvey
Kilmainhamwood V St. Colmcilles
Nobber a bye

Round 5

Carnaross V Nobber
Kilmainhamwood V Moynalvey

St. Colmcilles a bye

The JUNIOR 'C' Football Championship Group A draw in full is:

Round 1

Moynalvey V Kilmainhamwood

Donaghmore Ashbourne V Oldcastle

Castletown a bye

Round 2

Castletown V Oldcastle

Donaghmore/Ashbourne V Kilmainhamwood

Moynalvey a bye

Round 3

Castletown V Moynalvey

Kilmainhamwood V Oldcastle

Donaghmore/Ashbourne a bye

Round 4

Castletown V Donaghmore/Ashbourne

Moynalvey V Oldcastle

Kilmainhamwood a bye

Round 5

Castletown V Kilmainhamwood

Moynalvey V Donaghmore/Ashbourne

Oldcastle a bye

A full breakdown of the draws in both football & hurling can be viewed by accessing the following link:

Meath Club Championship draws 2010