For over 20 years 'Aisling' as a non profit award winning charity (received the Special Endeavour award for Ireland and its Islands presented by President Mary McAleese in Waterford for its service to communities). It has worked with young people from all walks of life in drug related prevention training, works extensively with schools in the region & sports. It has delivered the 'Safe Passage' training programme for club managers and coaches and established drug free policies.

Aisling International is also poted on the GAA website as a service which can be contated relating to drug/alcohol information, training and for others it provides counselling and recovery programmes.

Meath GAA clubs are invited to be represented at this one in a lifetime cycling event to show support for the launch of its National Drug awareness campaign, drug/alcohol free driving, healthy lifestyle activities and make the work of the charity known to communities.
