Moynalvey GFC in association with Bruce Betting present a Cheltenham Preview Night on Saturday 11th

March in Kiltale Clubhouse

. Get all the very latest news & views on the 2017 Cheltenham Festival from our expert panel of some of the biggest names in National Hunt Racing:

Trainer Gordon Elliott and Jockeys Robbie Power & Sean Flanagan

literally just hours before the lads board the plane to the Festival!!

At our preview night last year Gordon & the panel were bullish on Don Cossack's Gold Cup hopes; and rightly so as it turned out! Last year a signed picture (by Gordon Elliott & Bryan Cooper) of the then Gold Cup prospect Don Cossack was purchased in the night's auction by a local bidder, now obviously a keepsake following the Don's success!

Will there be another big local winner this year? Will it be Gordon's Outlander or Don Poli, Robbie Power's mount Sizing John or will Sean Flanagan partner the Noel Meade trained Road

To Riches to victory in the Gold Cup? What views will the panel have on the other big races of the festival?

What will the view be on the chances of JURY DUTY who heads to Cheltenham??
The Locally owned horse, trained by Gordon Elliott.

All will be discussed by our expert National Hunt Panel on the night!

Admission - Only €10.
