

Meath GAA C&G Coaching Conference

Saturday, February 3rd 2018 10am-1:30pm
Meath GAA Centre of Excellence, Dunganny

Liam Moggan: 10am - 11am

Former sports psychologist with Kerry GAA & mentor with Coaching Ireland, Liam will be discussing the "Psychology of Coaching" and it's relevance in sports today

Colm Nally: 11am - 12:15pm

The Leinster GAA tutor and coach will be taking an outdoor practical session on "Tackling as an individual & Defending as a team"

Paul Early: 12:30pm - 1:30pm

The former Irish international rules manager and current Sky sports GAA commentator talks us through the "Importance of Leadership" within a team structure

Tickets €10 available via Event Brite @ www.eventbrite.ie

For more info see

TWITTER @MeathCoaching
WEBSITE www.meath.gaa.ie

Meath GAA are holding a coaching conference on Saturday February 3rd at Meath Centre of Excellence Dunganny.

Timetable of events:

Liam Moggan: 10 a.m. – 11 a.m.: Former sports psychologists with Kerry GAA and mentor with Coaching Ireland, Liam will be discussing the 'Psychology of Coaching' and it's relevance in sports today.

Colm Nally: 11 a.m. – 12.15 p.m.: The Leinster GAA tutor and coach will be taking an outdoor session on 'Tackling as an individual and Defending as a team'

Paul Early: 12.30 p.m. – 1.30 p.m.: The former Irish international rules manager and current Sky Sports GAA commentator talks us through the 'Importance of Leadership' within a team structure.

Ticket are €10 each and are available via Event Brite @ www.eventbrite.ie

<https://www.eventbrite.ie/e/meath-gaa-coaching-conference-tickets-41632767729?aff=es2>

If you have any queries in relation to the event please do not hesitate to contact Meath GAA PRO Ciaran Flynn or Meath GAA Coaching office.